From the December issue: The New York Building Congress has named Carlo Scissura its new president and chief executive officer. Scissura, who will take over on Jan. 1, 2017, succeeds Richard Anderson, the leader of the trade group since 1994. Anderson will assume the title of president emeritus and will serve as a consultant. Scissura comes to NYBC from the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, where he served as president and chief executive.
